The Carthagène (cartagena in occitan) is a fortified wine typical from Languedoc. Traditionnally it is drunk as an aperitif or with desert. Domaine Virgile Joly is proud of this ancestral tradition and wishes to introduce this unique product. This Carthagene has a magnificent rose color enhanced with orange gleam

The nose is very intense with rose petals, oranges zests, lychee and spices. The taste of this Carthagene is round balanced with a long persisting finish finally ending with bergamot and a subtile coffee note. This vin de liqueur has a unique style

Accompaniments: It will pair perfectly an orange dessert, or red fruit dessert, chocolate cake or spice bread. It can also be drunk on its own as an apéritif.
